

PUBLIC ART CALL FOR ARTISTS:

CHURCHILL PARK

HAMILTON.CA / PUBLICART

The City of Hamilton is seeking professional Artists or Artist-Led Teams to create a permanent Public Art work(s) to be located along a new path in the western section of Churchill Park, also known as the Royal Botanical Gardens Teaching Garden. Artists are asked to propose art works that will speak to themes related to Human Rights and the legacy of great humanitarians such as Raoul Wallenberg, who saved over 100,000 Jews from the Holocaust.

Artists will be selected by a citizen Jury through a two-stage process involving a written statement of approach and qualifications followed by submission of a detailed proposal by selected Artists.

AWARD: $200,000

Short-listed Artists completing a Stage 2 submission will receive a $1200 honorarium.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: NOVEMBER 22, 2018 AT 3:00 PM

Artist Information Meeting: Thursday October 18, 2018, 7 PM Westdale Library
(Program Room) – 955 King Street West, Hamilton. Artists are invited to view a presentation on the adjudication process and submission requirements and ask questions. This is not a mandatory meeting.

For more information see the website or contact:

Jen Anisef

Cultural Projects Specialist

Public Art and Projects Section, Tourism and Culture Division

Planning and Economic Development Department

Tel: 905.546.2424 ext. 7612 e-mail: Jen.Anisef@hamilton.ca

Hamilton